E-mail your images to: artcontest@theretreatinc.org with the subject line "ART CONTEST". Title these in the format outlined above. Images that are sent in without payment will not be looked at.

JURYING PROCESS

Selection of the top 30 submissions to be exhibited in the Group Show at Peter Marcelle Contemporary on May 9, 2009 will be made from submitted JPEG and CD images. Make sure the images are clear, since the actual piece of work will not be judged.

JURORS:

- Ann Chwatsky - Photographer and Faculty at NYU, Coordinator of the Art and Media program.
- Helen Harrison - Adjunct lecturer at Stony Brook University, Director of Pollock-Krasner House, Curator.
- Gavin Spanierman - Director of a major NYC gallery, Spanierman Gallery.

AWARDS:

The top 30 entries will be shown in a group show at Peter Marcelle Contemporary opening on May 9, 2009. The "Best in Show" of these 30, will win a SOLO Exhibit at Peter Marcelle Contemporary at a date to be determined. The top 30 entries may be used in promotional material, on the web site, or any other way the Retreat feels is necessary to draw press to this event.

ABOUT THE RETREAT

The Retreat, founded in 1987, is the only non-profit domestic violence agency on the East End of Long Island, whose mission is to provide safety, shelter and support for victims of domestic abuse and to break the cycle of family violence. The Retreat provides both residential and non-residential services (housing, crisis hotline, counseling and legal advocacy) and maintains an in-school violence prevention education program, all of which are free of charge to those in need.
